

2022 Nomination VASCAN Founders Award

During our annual VASCAN conference, the VASCAN Founders Award (Formerly the Shirley Payne IT Security Advancement Award) is given to an IT security professional, manager or auditor who has contributed to the Virginia information security community in a notable way, or who joined the community and exhibited an admirable commitment to developing themselves and others, the necessary skills to execute and advance an effective information security program.

Submit completed nomination forms by September 16, 2022 to jstreit@odu.edu.

| |
|-------------------------------------|
| Nominator name & contact: |
| Nominee name & contact: |
| Relationship to nominee |

Describe below how the nominee has exhibited one or more of the following characteristics:

| |
|--|
| Outstanding accomplishment that benefits an information security program or the COV IT security Community: |
| Extraordinary service to an information security program or to the COV IT security community: |
| Inspiring leadership in the area of IT security: |
| Enthusiasm or energy given in advancement of an IT security program or to the COV IT security community: |
| Teamwork in advancement of an IT security program or the COV IT security community: |
| Exemplary effort to nurture a climate of understanding and acceptance of IT security principles in an organization or in the COV community: |
| Creative or innovative effort in advancement of an IT security program or the COV IT security community: |
| Effectiveness in applying or garnering support of IT security principles in an IT security program or in the COV IT security community: |